

Special Assistant Attorneys General

REPORT OF EXPENDITURES

The Office of Attorney General provides legal services to 121 state agencies, boards and commissions. Section 54-12-08 N.D.C.C. authorizes Workforce Safety and Insurance, the Department of Transportation, State Tax Commissioner, Public Service Commission, Insurance Commissioner, Board of Higher Education, and the Securities Commissioner to employ attorneys to represent them. State entities also may request the appointment of outside counsel to assist on specific issues or cases. The Special Assistant Attorneys General (SAAGs) are appointed by the Attorney General. The state entity must report the amount of salaries, fees and expenses paid to the SAAG.
